Comprehensive coverage and updates

Serious environmental and land use lawyers and litigators know that MCLE's Annual Environmental, Land Use & Energy Law Conference is "the place to be online" on March 26th. Learn what happened in federal and state legislatures, agencies, and courts, and in Massachusetts municipal law. Find out what you need to know for your clients and career—and catch up on what you missed this year.

New this year is a condensed afternoon program to accommodate busy schedules while continuing to provide full attention to critical new developments in each of the major fields of environmental law, energy law, land use, and related litigation. For those who have attended in prior years, attending annually refreshes your knowledge and helps keep you up to date on the latest developments. And for those new to the Conference, attending is a great way to broaden and deepen your knowledge by learning from experts who have been tracking the trends, cases, and statutory changes.
